8.Your Suggestion for future Developement of Rangapara College :

My suggestion is to reduce the syllabus and introduce skills based subjects in a practical form so that students come to college to study itself and teachers also interested in teaching new skills based subjects. For future Commerce students aiming for consider integrating the following skills-based subjects: 1. Digital Marketing and E-commerce: - Understanding online marketing strategies. - E-commerce platforms and management. 2. Financial Technology (FinTech): - Knowledge of digital financial services. - Blockchain and cryptocurrency basics. 3. Business Analytics: - Data analysis and interpretation for decision-making. - Statistical tools and techniques. 4. Entrepreneurship and Innovation: - Developing a business plan. - Creativity and problem-solving skills. 5. Supply Chain Management: - Logistics and inventory management. - Streamlining supply chain processes. 6. International Business and Global Economics: - Understanding global markets and trade. - Cross-cultural communication skills. 7. Communication and Negotiation Skills: - Effective written and verbal communication. - Negotiation and persuasion techniques. 8. Risk Management and Compliance: - Identifying and mitigating business risks. - Understanding regulatory compliance. 9. Project Management: - Planning, executing, and monitoring projects. - Time and resource management skills. 10. Data Privacy and Cybersecurity: - Protecting sensitive business information. - Cybersecurity best practices. These subjects can equip Commerce students with practical skills and knowledge, making them well-prepared for diverse career paths in the evolving business landscape.
