NOTICE

All UG 1st Semester students, except UG-ITEP students, of Rangapara College (Autonomous) are hereby informed that the College Identity Card (I-Card), which also serves as the Library Card, has been generated and merged with this notice. The I-Card can also be downloaded from the College Website.

The I-Cards have already been verified by the Central Library. Therefore, students are not required to submit their I-Card for verification again. All students are advised to:

- Download and print their I-Card on photo paper.
- Affix a stamp-size photograph and put their signature wherever required.
- Keep the I-Card safely and use it for accessing the Central Library and other purposes as applicable.
- Submit the duly completed I-Card at the Central Library before proceeding to the next academic session, as and when instructed by the College/Library.

Students are requested to read the instructions printed on the I-Card carefully and preserve the card properly throughout their course of study.
