REPORT

1. Objective:

The Major Objectives of the talk are as follows

- To discuss the Constitutional Value
- To focus light on the literary and philosophical values in present context

2. Target group: Students and Faculty Members

3. Significance of the event: The Constitution of any country serves several purposes. It lays down certain ideals that form the basis of the kind of country that we as citizens aspire to live in. A country is usually made up of different communities of people who share certain beliefs, but may not necessarily agree on all issues. A Constitution helps serve as a set of principles, rules and procedures on which there is a consensus. These form the basis according to which the people want the country to be governed and the society to move on. This includes not only an agreement on the type of government but also on certain ideals that the country should uphold. The Indian Constitution has certain core constitutional values that constitute its spirit and are expressed in various articles and provisions. In fact, in a layman's understanding, value is that which is very essential or 'worth having and observing' for the existence of human society as an entity. The Indian Constitution Contains all such values, the values that are the universal, human and democratic of the modern age. The constitutional values are reflected in the entire Constitution of India, Its Preamble embodies 'the fundamental values and the philosophy on which the Constitution is based. These are: sovereignty, socialism, secularism, democracy, republican character, justice, liberty, equality, fraternity, human dignity and the unity and integrity of the Nation. Moreover, teaching about constitution does not merely mean giving information and knowledge in the classroom, but it also covers all modalities which could sensitize a person, awaken his/her conscience and develop an attitude of behaving decently in a social set up.

4. Description of the Programme:

The popular talk began sharply at 7.30 PM with the welcome address by Dr. Pradip Barman, (HOD, Department of History, Rangapara College). This was followed by the inaugural speech by the Principal, Dr. Ranjan Kalita. After welcoming the participants and faculty members Dr Kalita also stressed on the importance of constitutional values in our day to day life. The inaugural speech was tagged along by the speech of the Co-ordinator of the programme, Mr. Deependra Sarma (HOD, English, Rangapara College). After that both the speaker Dr. Mohan Parasain (Joint Director. Parliament of India) and Dr. Babita Singh Parasain (Joint Director. Parliament of India) discussed the importance of Constitutional Values and Values in Everyday Life, Literature and Philosophy. They discussed about the relation of between citizen and constitution in everyday life. A Constitution helps serve as a set of principles, rules and procedures on which there is a consensus. These form the basis according to which the people want the country to be governed and the society to move on. This includes not only an agreement on the type of government but also on certain ideals that the country should uphold. The Indian Constitution has certain core constitutional values that constitute its spirit and are expressed in various articles and provisions. The Indian Constitution contains all such values, the values that are the universal, human and democratic of the modern age. The programme concluded with the Vote of Thanks by Mr. Lohit Ch. Baishya (HOD, Political Science) where he heartily thanked all the faculty, staffs and students present on the occasion and showered motivation for the success of the talk.
