Coexistence for Conservation: An interaction with students of Rangapara College on the occasion of World Environment Day

Date: 07-06-2022

Venue: Digital Seminar Hall

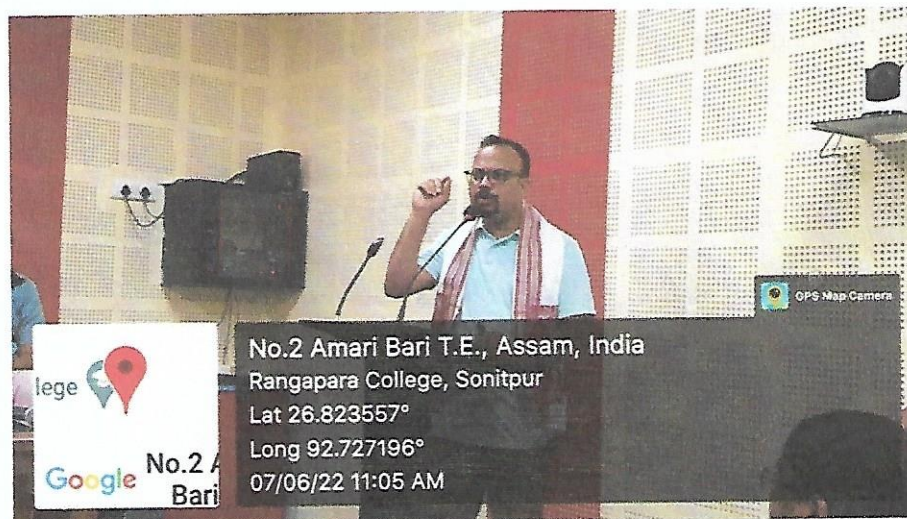

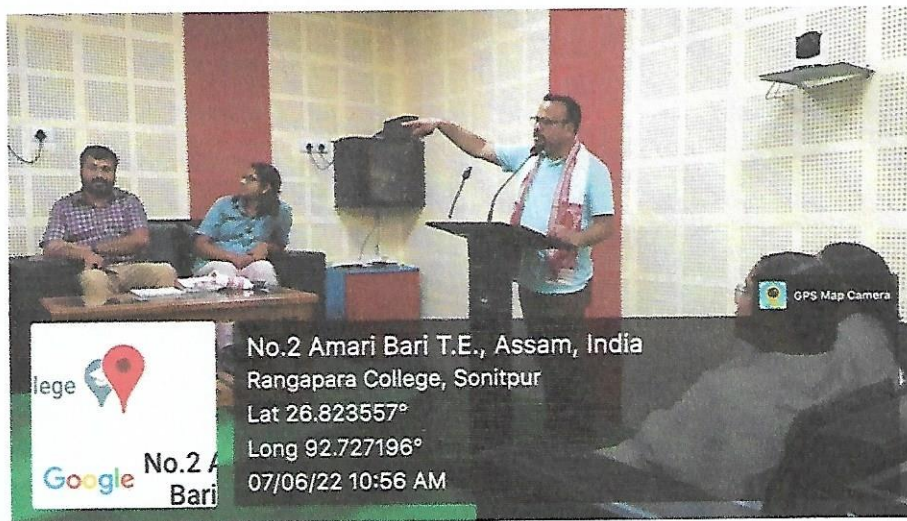

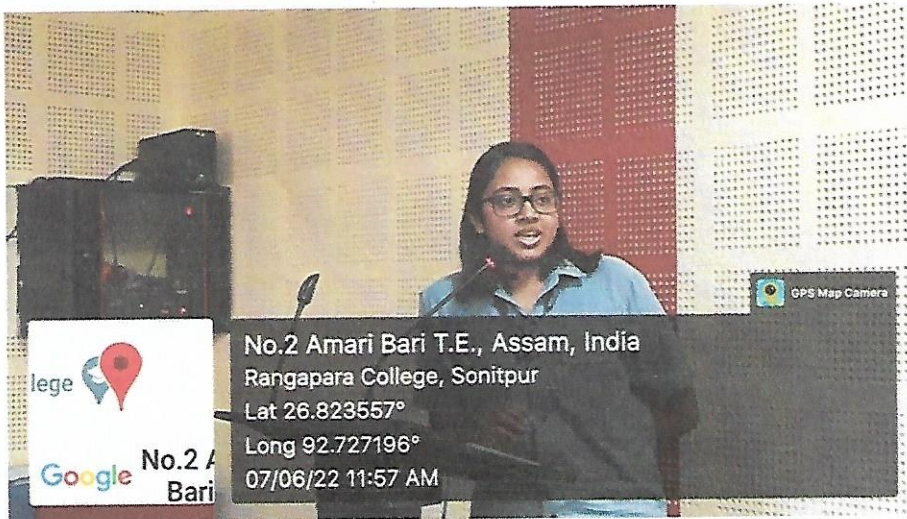

Biodiversity conservation is one of the burning topics of the now a days world. Celebrating the World Environment Day, the Rangapara College organized a marathon of lectures on the various topics related to biodiversity conservation. The lecture series was initiated with the welcome speech on 7th June, 2022 by Dr. Gitartha Kaushik, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Zoology, and Coordinator, Xeuji, the Green Club of Rangapara College. The first lecture was delivered by Mr. Hiten Baishya, one of the conservationists of World Wild Fund for Nature, India. He delivered his speech on the conservation of Asiatic elephants in India. Following his speech, Mr. Arjun Kamdar delivered his talk on the identification and conservation of snakes. Following Kamdar's talk, Miss Tejaswini Nagesh delivered her talk on camera trapping, one of the methods used for conservation. Later, Mr. Kamal Medhi delivered his speech on the landscape patters of Arunachal Pradesh and the distribution of various animals and their conservation in the state. The last lecture of the series was delivered by Dr. Gitartha Kaushik on the topic understanding of Carbon-dioxide, greenhouse gases and climate change. At the end of the session, Dr. Ranjan Kalita, Principal, Rangapara College delivered the concluding remarks of the session. He urged the students to study about the rich biodiversity of the college campus. Members of Prajapita Brahmakumari Ishwariya Vishwavidyalaya also joined the session. Participation of 21 students of the college and 22 teachers made the event a grand success. A light breakfast for all the participants was provided at the end by the WWF, India.
