REPORT

1. Objectives:

- To bring a consciousness among students to write correct spellings
- To make students aware and practice correct pronunciation
- To improve vocabulary among the students

2. Target Group: Students

3. Significance of the Event: Spelling Bee improves the vocabulary of students. The competitive spirit facilitates in learning new words with correct spelling and pronunciation.

4. Description of the Programme: The event commenced at 11 A.M. with coordinator, Mr. Niku Chetia introducing the esteemed guests- Dr. Ranjan Kalita (Principal of Rangapara College), Dr. Ranendra Mohan Deka (Vice-Principal of Rangapara College) and Dr. Aswini Kumar Deka (Assistant Professor, Department of Assamese). All esteemed guests were felicitated with a fulam gamusa by the students of the department. After the brief felicitation ceremony, Dr. Ranendra Mohan Deka, welcomed the guests and appreciated their presence despite paucity of time. Thereafter, Principal, Dr. Ranjan Kalita was requested to give an inaugural speech. In his speech, Dr. Kalita eulogized the Department of English for contributing a new event to the vast array of events conducted by the college. He also stressed the importance and benefits of conducting such academic events. Thereafter, the Head of the Department, Mr. Deependra Sarma, gave a speech highlighting the significance of the event. A total of 22 students participated from various departments of the college. The session was moderated by Ms. Meghali Saikia and Ms. Bhanita Das. Mr. Dhurbajyoti Nath offered technical assistance for smooth conduct of the event. The competition lasted for four rounds. Elimination started from Round 1 itself. Each of the students was offered a single word from a word pool. The words selected for first round to the last round had varying range of difficulty. Out of 22 students, 5 students were eliminated in the first round. In the second and third round, 12 and 11 students were eliminated respectively. Only one student named Anushree Paul from Department of Botany, Rangapara College could march to the 5th round; consequently making her the winner of Spelling Bee. The event concluded with vote of thanks pronounced by Dr. Pamela Sarmah. The winner was awarded with a certificate of achievement and a dictionary by the Department of English on 28th March, 2022.
