Report on "International Mother Language Day"

Organized by
Rangapara College

Date-21-02-2022

Time-10.30 A.M onwards

Objective: To promote awareness on linguistic and cultural diversity;

Summary of the Programme:

The International Mother Language Day is an annual celebration held on February 21 of every year from 2000, following UNESCO's guidelines to promote awareness of linguistic and cultural diversity and to advocate for multilingualism. Like every year, this year also Rangapara College observed the International Mother Language Day on 21 February, 2022. The programme was started by inaugurating a journal "Thulunga: a multi-lingual students' research journal" edited by Prasanta Boro, HoD, Department of Bodo and a book by Dr. Mamata Borthakur, Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce, entitled "Growth of small tea gardens in Sonitpur District". The meeting started with the welcome speech by Dr, Ranjan Kalita, Principal, Rangapara College. Dr. Kalita in his speech emphasised on the maximum use of the mother language to conserve it from extinction in the era of digitalisation. The session was presided over by Dr. Charu Saharia Nath, president of governing body of Rangapara College. Dr. Nath during her speech expressed her feelings on how a person can join hands to conserve a language from extinction. Dr. Ranendra Mohan Deka, Vice Principal, Rangapara College explain the importance of the celebration of the Mother Language Day. The whole session was moderated by Prasanta Boro. At the end of the session Dr. Aswini Kumar Deka, HoD, Department of Assamese offered the vote of thanks.

Observation of "NATIONAL CONSTITUTION DAY" 2021

Date: 26-11-2021

Organized By

Department of Political Science

In Association with IQAC, Rangapara College

The Constitution is the basic principles and laws of a nation, state, or social group that determine the powers and duties of the government and guarantee certain rights to the people in it. It is the supreme law that determines the relationship between people living in a territory (called citizens) and also the relationship between the people and their government. The Constitution of India was adopted on November 26, 1949, and it came into effect on January 26, 1950. Since that time, the entire nation celebrates the 26th of November as Constitution Day every year enthusiastically. On this day, every Indian commemorates the ideals and philosophy of the Sovereign, Socialist, Secular, and Democratic Republic, aiming to secure justice, liberty, and equality for all citizens and promote fraternity to maintain unity and integrity of the nation. For this purpose, as usual, the Rangapara College also celebrates Constitution Day, or Samvidhan Divas, every year. Concerning the occasion, this year, the Department of Political Science at Rangapara College organised Constitution Day on November 26, 2021. Mr. Atul Sharma, IQAC Co-ordinator, inaugurated the program, read the preamble of the Indian constitution, followed by the faculty members and students, and took an oath on the ideals and philosophy of the constitution. In the program, all faculty members and students, including office staff, participated and enriched the important ideals and philosophy of the Constitution.
