Coexistence for Conservation: An interaction with students of Rangapara College on the occasion of World Environment Day

Date: 07-06-2022

Venue: Digital Seminar Hall

Biodiversity conservation is one of the burning topics of the now a days world. Celebrating the World Environment Day, the Rangapara College organized a marathon of lectures on the various topics related to biodiversity conservation. The lecture series was initiated with the welcome speech on 7th June, 2022 by Dr. Gitartha Kaushik, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Zoology, and Coordinator, Xeuji, the Green Club of Rangapara College. The first lecture was delivered by Mr. Hiten Baishya, one of the conservationists of World Wild Fund for Nature, India. He delivered his speech on the conservation of Asiatic elephants in India. Following his speech, Mr. Arjun Kamdar delivered his talk on the identification and conservation of snakes. Following Kamdar's talk, Miss Tejaswini Nagesh delivered her talk on camera trapping, one of the methods used for conservation. Later, Mr. Kamal Medhi delivered his speech on the landscape patters of Arunachal Pradesh and the distribution of various animals and their conservation in the state. The last lecture of the series was delivered by Dr. Gitartha Kaushik on the topic understanding of Carbon-dioxide, greenhouse gases and climate change. At the end of the session, Dr. Ranjan Kalita, Principal, Rangapara College delivered the concluding remarks of the session. He urged the students to study about the rich biodiversity of the college campus. Members of Prajapita Brahmakumari Ishwariya Vishwavidyalaya also joined the session. Participation of 21 students of the college and 22 teachers made the event a grand success. A light breakfast for all the participants was provided at the end by the WWF, India.

Health Awareness Programme

Date: 25-08-2022

Venue: Digital Seminar Hall

A Health Awareness Programme entitled “Targeted Intervention Camp at College” was organised by Sonitpur District Health Society, Sonitpur, Assam on 25th August 2022 in the Digital Seminar Hall of Rangapara College. The programme was chaired by Dr. Ranjan Kalita, Principal of the college who welcomed all to the programme and hoped that various issues related to mental health and drug consumption would be discussed in the programme and it would be a successful event. It was a part of District Mental Health Programme. Ms. Joshna Kund and Pinkee Chutia, Psychiatrist and Social Activist respectively from Sonitpur district were invited to the programme and they delivered lecture on stress management and drug related issues in presence of teachers and students of the college. The important causes of mental problem and their remedies had also been discussed by the resource persons. They also tried to aware the students of various issues due to the consumption of drugs and showed how this habit is destroying the lives of the youths of our society. There was an interactive session in the programme where the resource persons answered to different queries related to mental health and the habit of drug consumption. In the end the Principal of the college thanked all for making the programme a successful one and declared the programme to an end.

7	Activity Report	An Interactive Programme on Spiritualism was organized by IQAC, Rangapara College on 19th December, 2022 with Mr. Bidyapati Dahal, Retd. Teacher, Sangved Vishwashanti Vidyalaya, Udalguri, Assam. The programme was chaired by Dr.Ranjan Kalita, Principal of the college. The resource person Bidyapati Dahal aged about 86 years delivered his lecture on the topic in a very lucid and interesting manner. The importance of spirituality in the field of education was elaborately discussed by the resource person. Mr. Dahal said how spirituality keeps our mind and body fit for acquiring knowledge in our day to day life. The resource person also talked about the misuse of mobile phones in today's society. The personal experiences shared by the resource person in the field of spirituality helped the students and teachers present in the programme to understand the true meaning of life. The resource person also advised the students to set their aims first for a successful life. The study of the students should not limite only to the text books.

- Target group: Faculty and students of the college
- Significance of the event: The programme focused light on the teachings and contribution of Sankardeva.
- Description of the Programme: Discussion on the Literary Contribution of Sankardeva was organized by IQAC, Rangapara College in association with the Sankardev Nam Dharma Samaj, Assam on 5th August 2022. The programme was chaired by Dr.Ranjan Kalita, principal of the college. Dr. Ranjan Kalita very beautifully highlighted the valuable teachings of Sankardeva. The literary contribution of this Great Man of Assam was discussed in his lecture. The importance of Kirtan Ghosa, Nam Ghosa, Srimadbhagavata etc. Similarly, Mr. Dinesh Mahanta,

(Dr. Ranjan Kalita)
Principal
Rangapara College

C. K. Kalita

President, Mahapurush Srimanta Sankardev Namdhrama Samaj, Assam (MSSNS) talked on the literary contribution of Sri Sri Sankardeva. He told that Sankardeva reorganized the Assamese society at a time when there was chaos and confusion in the society. He also stated that the literary activities of Sankardeva made our society rich and worthy. It may be also be noted that in the programme the Principal of the college was felicitated by Mahapurush Srimanta Sankardev Namdhrama Samaj (MSSNS), Assam for his constructive and good governance.

5. Suggestions:

Mr. Dinesh Mahanta suggested that regular discussion on the literary contribution of Sankardeva definitely helped to know more about the contribution of this great man of Assam in shaping our society in future.
