Analysis:

99 students participated in the Student Satisfaction Survey (2023-24). The overall performance of the institution was found to be satisfactory. Students stressed on the need to use visual media to make demonstrations. Innovative methods of teaching should be encouraged to help students tackle problems. The parameters set to take the feedback indicate satisfactory level. Steps to be taken to promote internship and undertake field visits. 82% students agree that they are provided with opportunities to learn and grow. 86 % students felt that teachers prepare well for the classes. 99% students agree that teachers are able to communicate well. Illustrations to explain concepts to students received an impressive 97% agreement from the feedback of students.
