A REPORT ON THE OBSERVATION OF INTERNATIONAL MOTHER LANGUAGE DAY

Organised by
Language Departments, Rangapara College
Date: 21/02/2024
Venue: Digital Seminar Hall

(Dr. Ranjan Kalita)
Principal
Rangapara College

Period: June 2023 - May 2024	Date of the Event: 21st February 2024
Title of the Event	Observation of International Mother Language Day
Type of the Event	Day Observation
No. of Participants
Permission obtained for the event	YES
Venue of the Event	Digital Seminar Hall, Rangapara College

Objectives:

- To ensure the preservation and protection of all languages, especially the endangered ones.
- To promote understanding, respect and tolerance of all languages and cultures.
- To promote the significance of multilingual education in the light of NEP.
- To promote the idea of cultural and linguistic harmony.

Target Group: Society at large

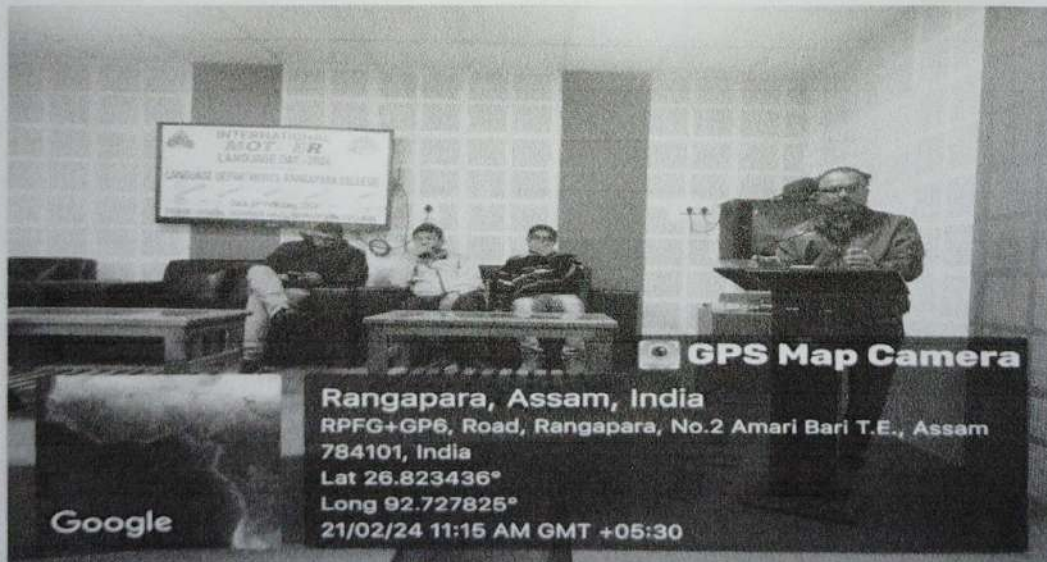

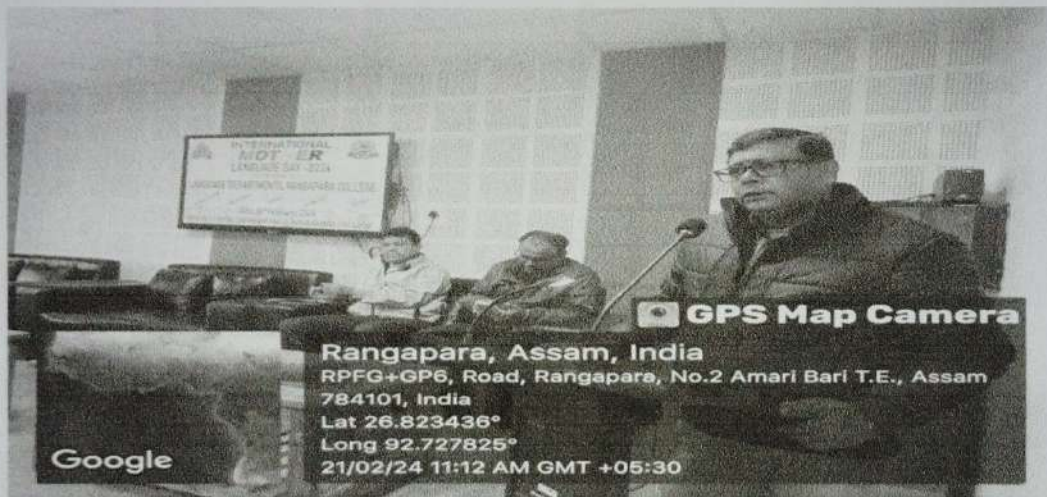

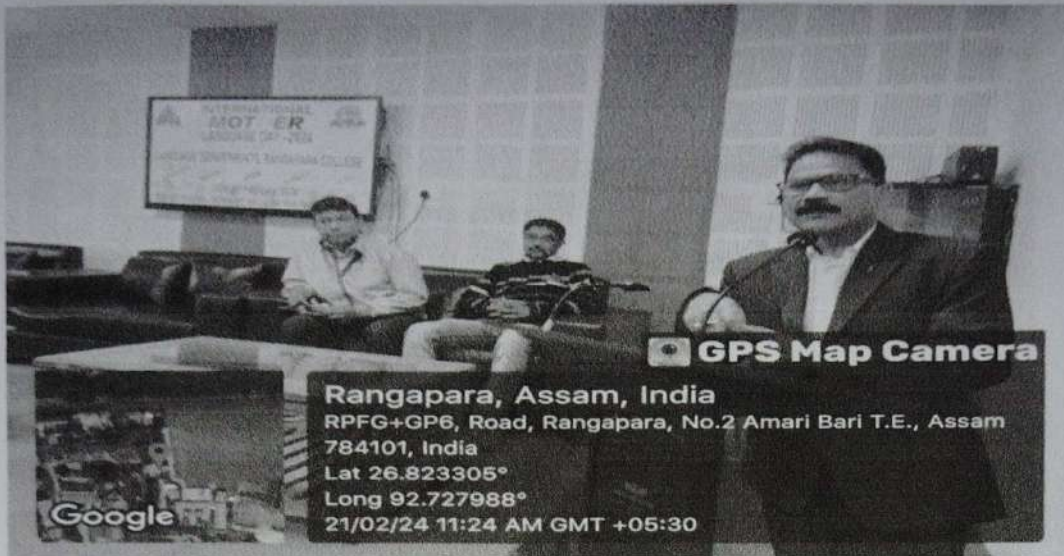

Description of the Event:

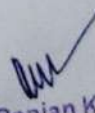

Inaugural Session: Dr. Rakesh Ch. Sarkar, HoD, Department of Bengali, Rangapara College, heartily welcomed the faculties and students present at the programme. This was followed by the inaugural speech delivered by the Principal of the college, Dr. Ranjan Kalita, who reiterated the significance of language in an individual's life and its integral role in the civilisation and progress of the human race. This was succeeded by an informative speech by the Vice Principal of the college, Mr. Atul Sarmah, who delivered his speech on this year's theme of 'International Mother Language Day' as declared by UNESCO. He talked vividly about the importance of the preservation of the mother language so as to preserve the culture of one's own community. A speech from Dr. Nabakanta Das, HoD, Department of Hindi, succeeded. Dr. Das emphasised the promotion of multilingualism and reverence towards one's own language.

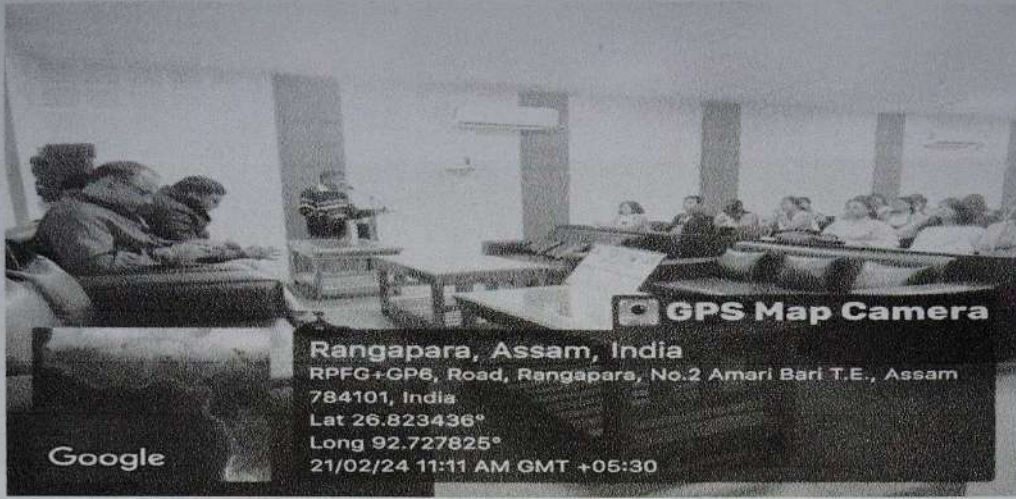

This was followed by a speech by Dr. Pamela Sarmah, Assistant Professor, Department of English, who stressed the importance of preserving the roots of a community in which the mother language is a significant contributor. This was succeeded by a brief yet informative speech by Dr. Mamata Borthakur, HoD, Department of Commerce, who emphasised on the linguistic and cultural diversity and the need to preserve them. Dr. Borthakur encouraged all the students present to write in their mother tongue in order to conserve their respective languages. This was followed by a poetry recitation in Bengali by Kaberi Mukherjee of the Department of Bengali. Dr. Mousumi Dutta of the Department of Assamese threw light on the formation of a sustainable world where all languages can co-exist with mutual respect. Dr. Rakesh Ch. Sarkar offered a vote of thanks and thanked everyone for their active participate

REPORT

1. Objective:

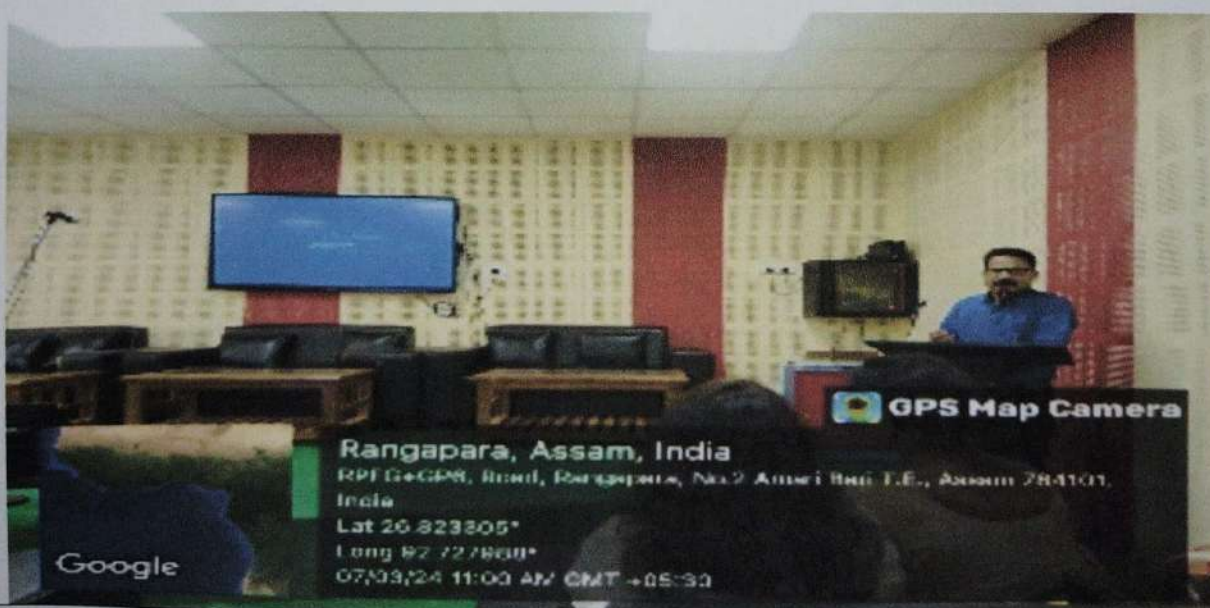

- To celebrate the contributions women have made to society and the world.
- To raise awareness about gender equality and parity.
- To foster unity by creating a sense of solidarity and unity among women from different cultures and background.

2. Target Group: Faculty Members, Students

3. Significance of the Event: Marked annually on every March 8th, the world recognizes International Women's Day to celebrate the accomplishments of women in areas like culture, politics, the economy, and society at large. Originating from early 20th-century activism, the day honors and commemorates women's rights movements globally. It also serves as an advocate tool to address issues like gender-based discrimination, disparate access to resources, and marginalized representation in leadership. This year's theme of Invest in Women: Accelerate Progress. By investing in women, we can spark change and speed the transition towards a healthier, safer, and more equal world for all

4. Description of the Programme: On the occasion of International Women's Day, the Women's Cell of Rangapara College organized a special talk on 8th March, 2024, to mark and celebrate the achievement of women and recognize challenges, and focus greater attention on women's rights and gender equality. We were also joined by the female faculty members of Balipara Government College. The programme started with the lighting of the lamp, by the Principal of our college, Dr. Ranjan Kalita, followed by a group song by the female faculty members. This was followed by a welcome speech by the Principal, where he emphasized the importance of role of women in society at large. He also talked about the need for action to generate and accelerate gender parity. This was followed by a short speech by Chandana Das, about the origins of International Women's Day and the theme of this year's celebration. It was followed by a poetry recital by Dr. Beauti Das and a song performance by Niku Chetia and Ratan Chowdhury. In keeping with the overall programme, recitation of poetry by female students were also done. The programme ended with a vote of thanks by Dr. Mousumi Dutta.

REPORT

1. Objective: The primary objective of the event was to encourage young minds to actively engage themselves in Science, Technology, and Innovation, thus playing a crucial role in sustainable development programs.
2. Target group: The event was primarily focused on students.
3. Significance of the event: The event held great significance as it emphasized the integral connection between science and gender equality in achieving globally agreed-upon development goals, including the 2030 Agenda.
4. Description of the program: The Science Association of Rangapara College successfully celebrated the International Day of Women and Girls in Science 2023, centering the event around the theme 'Innovate. Demonstrate. Elevate. Advance. I.D.E.A.: Bringing Communities Forward for Sustainable and Equitable Development'. The program was marked by notable participants and engaging activities. Dr. Gayatri Gogoi, Assistant Professor in the Department of Chemistry, served as the program's host, ensuring its smooth execution and coordination. Dr. Gaurango Chakraborty, Head of the Department of Chemistry at Rangapara College, inaugurated the program with an inspiring speech, setting the tone for the event. Students from Missamari H.S. school, Sonitpur, along with their teacher in charge, actively participated in the program, contributing to the diversity and engagement of the event. Ms. Parishmita Boruah, Assistant Professor in the Department of Mathematics, Rangapara College delivered a captivating speech on the topic "Science: What, how, and where?", stimulating critical thinking and fostering discussions among the attendees. Following the enlightening lectures, an interactive session and question-and-answer segment were conducted, providing an opportunity for attendees to actively engage with the topics discussed and seek clarifications. Participants from Missamari H.S. school were privileged to visit the Science laboratories of Rangapara College, exposing them to practical scientific environments and enhancing their understanding of scientific concepts. Dr. Gayatri Gogoi concluded the program by delivering a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all participants, speakers, and organizers for their contributions to the success of the event. This comprehensive overview highlights the key aspects and highlights of the International Day of Women and Girls in Science celebration held by the Science Association of Rangapara College.

5. Suggestions:

- Organize awareness campaigns: Conduct awareness campaigns in schools and colleges to highlight the importance of women's participation in science fields. These campaigns can include posters, flyers, and presentations that showcase the achievements of women scientists and their contributions to various scientific disciplines.
- Guest lectures and panel discussions: Invite successful women scientists and professionals to deliver guest lectures or participate in panel discussions. They can share their personal experiences, challenges they faced, and the rewards of pursuing a career in science. This can inspire and motivate students to consider science as a viable and rewarding career option.
- Workshops and hands-on activities: Conduct workshops and hands-on activities related to various scientific disciplines. These activities can include experiments, demonstrations, and interactive sessions that allow students to actively engage with scientific concepts. Encourage female scientists or mentors to lead these activities, providing role models for young girls interested in pursuing science.

REPORT

1. Name of the Event: National Science Day 2024
2. Significance of the event: To celebrate National Science Day to create scientific temper among the students.
3. Description of the programme:

On the Occasion of National Science Day 2024, Science Association in collaboration with IQAC Rangapara College organized an 'On Spot Art Competition' on the theme 'Indigenous Technology for Viksit Bharat' and a popular talk by the resource person Mr. Parag Bhattacharya, Asst. Professor Dept. of Physics on the topic 'Astronomy from an Indian perspective'. The event started at 10 am with the On spot Art competition. Later to that at 11 am an inaugural session was held at digital Seminar hall in the presence of Dr. Ranjan Kalita, Principal & Sri Atul Sarmah Vice Principal Rangapara College. The whole event was hosted by Ms. Parishmita Boruah, Asst. Professor Dept. of Mathematics. Dr. Ranjan Kalita, principal, Rangapara College delivered the welcome address followed by the session of plenary talk . Resource person Mr. Parag Bhattacharya mainly focused on the oldest branch of science i.e Astronomy emphasizing mainly on its evolution with time, starting from the very primitive people to the new advanced technologies and establishment of space research centres in India such as ISRO, IUCCA, LIGO etc. and the contribution of India towards science and how India as a nation could excel better than other nations in the present time in terms of its modern technology like launching of Rockets & Satellites and he also gave a glimpse of country's first human space flight mission,'Gaganyaan'. His talk mainly motivated and inspired the young minds to create the natural curiosity about science and to have a scientific temperament and contribute to society. Then there was a prize distribution for the on spot art competition. Lastly Subham Roy ended the event with a note of vote of thanks.
